STATEMENT

GROUND HANDLING WORKERS ARE IN MOURNING ONCE MORE

The ETF with regret has been informed once again that a groundhandling worker died on Sunday 11th November 2012 at Fiumicino Airport in Rome while unloading a plane.

The ETF wishes to express its sincerest condolences to the family of this forty years old worker, who leaves behind wife and two children.

The ETF sends its support to the fellow GH workers at Fiumicino Airport.

The ETF awaits with interest the findings of the investigative reports into this fatal accident and fully backs any initiatives agreed and to be carried out by our Italian members.
